Eagles Ousted From Head and Tied By Cardinals and Clarendon Yesterday

Ousting of the Eagles from their place as leaders in the series for the amateur baseball championship of northern Virginia was the result of the game yesterday at Baggett's diamond between the Eagles and the Cardinals, while down at the Cove the Alexandria County Athletic Association nine defeated the White Sox, and tied for first place honors with the Cardinals and Eagles.

This leaves the first three clubs with a percentage of .667 each and puts the White Sox out of the running temporarily.

In the game between the Cardinals and the Eagles it was the errors of the latter principally that allowed the red-stocked athletics to win, as "Lefty" White held down the Cardinals to three hits, and the Eagles managed to gather nine. The hits of the Cardinal lads, however, came at the proper moments and coupled with the six misplays accredited to the Eagles enabled them to send four runs across the plate, while the Eagles secured only one tally.

Giovannitti slugged for the Cardinals, and the final score was 4 to 1.

Cardinals 4 3 3
Eagles 1 9 6

The game at the Cove was similar to the one on upper King street inasmuch as the losing pitcher here deserved to win also, "Jimmy" Quayle, the White Sox twirler, striking out 14 men, although a little wild at times. The Clarendon boys came across with a number of timely hits, however, and captured the fray by a score of 7 to 2.

Although John Twohy, of Norfolk, died in 1914, possessed of nearly $500,000 in money, stocks and bonds and much valuable real estate and personal property, it was not until 1910 that he returned for taxation as much as $40,000 in intangibles. Prior to that year, $7,250 was his maximum return of this class of property. From 1895 to 1898 he returned for taxation annually, intangibles valued at $260. From 1900 to 1909 he reported no intangibles property at all for taxation. Examiner of Records Richard McIlwaine, of Norfolk, instituted an inquiry into the Twohy estate's holdings, with the result that he assessed the estate with omitted taxes for the years of 1906-12, on property values varying from $380,000 to $450,000 a year. The taxes on these omitted properties amounted to $10,000 for the State alone.

MAJOR LEAGUE BALL

American League

Six games were played in the American League yesterday, all the contests, of course taking place in Western cities, owing to the regulations against Sunday ball in Eastern towns. The Nationals and the Red Sox were the only Eastern clubs to win, Philadelphia and New York Yanks both losing both ends of a doubleheader to their Western opponents.

As a result of yesterday's doings in the junior circuit New York was ousted from its position as league leaders and relegated to third place, one and one-half games ahead of Cleveland, who occupy fourth. Chicago is only one-half game behind Boston, who are at the head of the percentage table now, and Cleveland, is one full game ahead of the Tigers who occupy 5th place and are 1 and a half games ahead of Washington.

If Washington can capture another game from the Indians today, she will likely be only one half game and several points in the rear of Detroit, as it is probable the Red Sox will defeat Jennings' clan today, and in a position to forge ahead of Cleveland and Detroit both by another victory or so.

Saturday's Score:
Washington, 2; Cleveland 1.
Boston, 9; Detroit, 3.
Chicago, 7; Philadelphia, 0.

PRESIDENT TO FORCE FIGHT.

What was the condition of the army and navy after William H. Taft left the White House after four years of service?

How many ships were in the navy or building at the end of the Roosevelt administration and at the end of the Taft administration?

How many men were there in the army when Roosevelt retired from power and, again when Taft quit the White House? What kind of an army reserve did we have and how much was our reserve supply in munitions and guns?

What was the condition of the laboring man four and eight years ago? Were wages higher or lower than now, and was labor as well satisfied as at present?

What do you think of the manner in which the Wilson administration met the financial and industrial crisis that followed the outbreak of the war in Europe?

Would you have recognized Dictator Huerta, even though at no time was he dominant over more than one-tenth of Mexico's population?

There is militancy in this series of questions. They embody the real issues of the campaign, if, in fact, there are any issues. The replies that must be made to them will determine whether or not this Hughes campaign is being made in patriotic good faith or simply as a mad scramble for control of the Government, with its patronage and its power. No amount of sophistry will meet the challenge contained in the question "What would you have done, Mr. Hughes, if you had been President?" The answer to this and to the specifications must be direct and honest if the country is to be impressed.

LURID LIGHT IN THE SKY

Caused Apprehension to Some Persons Who Had Read of Explosion in New York

The hot wave which has been reported by the weather bureau for the last few days to be headed this way presented a warning of fits approach last night about 8 o'clock which frightened some people.

Some time after sunset a lurid light appeared in the heavens—a reddish, weird light—which produced anxiety to some.

To many it suggested a conflagration of tremendous magnitude. It was subsequently explained that the red glare was the forerunner of a hot wave. The conditions was caused by the reflection of the sun on light clouds in the western skies.
